

19 A-musing

Over the years of teaching adult Sunday school classes and several home groups I often included, in a handout or on a PowerPoint screen, a funny or insightful quote or a fitting cartoon to get attention along with a laugh.

Going through tons of documents on my computer since the new year began, I ran across some of the quotes and funnies. My first thought was how to make another Musing, A-musing!

Many of you have seen or heard one, or all, of them — but they are worth another nod or chuckle to brighten your day.

Some people brighten the room, by just leaving it.

— Adrian Rogers

"Death is just a comma to a Christian, not a period."

— Adrian Rogers

"The world is growing gloriously dark."

— Adrian Rogers

Available in paperback wherever nauseating trash is sold.

— Cheers

A lie can travel halfway around the world while the truth is putting its pants on.

— James Patterson

My thought is, here is a man who was in his teens before he could reliably tie his shoes by himself.

— Unknown

A goal without a plan is just a wish

— Antoine de Saint-Exupéry